Sacramento, California

Project Title	Rural California Asset Development Network IDA Program
Contact Information	Sarah Steinheimer 717 K Street, Suite 400 Sacramento, CA 95814 (916) 443-4448
AFI Grant Amount	$290,000
Nonfederal Support	$2,138,000
Project Period	February 1, 2006 - January 31, 2011
Highlights	The California Coalition for Rural Housing (CCRH) will establish the Rural California Asset Development Network (The Network) to create up to 165 IDAs for homeownership, higher education, or small business development. Participant savings will be matched at a $2 to $1 rate, except for homeownership IDAs, which will be matched at a $3 to $1 rate. The CCRH will provide training and technical assistance to network partners who will manage participant training and services in each local IDA program. Partners are expected to provide matching funds of $3 to $1 for renters and a $2 to $1 match for self-help families.
Target Population	Low-income, rural Californians.
Grantee/Collaborative Description	The CCRH, founded in 1976, promotes the need for decent and affordable housing in the state's rural and non-metropolitan areas through supportive services and financial literacy. The Network includes several partners that develop self-help housing. Citibank is the primary financial institution partner.
